Regarding corporate officers' remuneration, the Company has a basic policy of strongly impressing the importance of striving to maximize enterprise value and meeting shareholder expectations, and to award remunerations appropriate for such duty.

[Compensation Committee]

Policies regarding the determination of the remuneration of directors and executive officers as well as individual remunerations are deliberated on by the Compensation Committee, comprised of at least three members with the majority being independent outside directors, and are reported to the Board of Directors. Specific subjects of deliberation are policies for determining the remunerations, etc., of individual directors and executive officers (types of remunerations paid for each position of directors and executive officers; composition ratios for each type of remuneration; and indicators for performance-linked remunerations), the content of the remunerations, etc., of individual directors and executive officers (individual amounts of fixed remunerations, individual calculation methods of variable remunerations, and individual content of non-monetary remunerations), and matters concerning regulations for the remuneration of directors and executive officers.

By resolution of the 151st Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 25, 2019, the Company has transitioned from the previous Audit & Supervisory Board system to a Company with a Three Committees Board Structure. While the Company has in recent years maintained an Audit & Supervisory Board system, the Board of Directors has established an optional Compensation Committee comprised of at least three members who are in the majority independent outside directors appointed from among the directors. The Compensation Committee deliberates on matters relating to the remuneration of directors, etc., and offers opinions and counsel to the Board of Directors, which the Board of Directors has adopted as much as possible in passing its resolutions.

[Remuneration composition]

The composition of remunerations of directors and executive officers is prescribed for each of the following categories. The combined maximum remuneration limit for transfer-restricted stock remunerations and performance linked stock remunerations is per year 500 million yen and 600,000 shares.

Category 1	Category 2	Category 3
Yasuo Takeuchi Akihiro Taguchi Haruo Ogawa Yasushi Sakai	Stefan Kaufmann	Non-executive internal directors and outside director

a. Composition of category 1 remuneration

The category 1 corporate officer remuneration consists of a monthly remuneration, bonus payments as a short-term incentive system, and transfer-restricted stock remuneration and performance-linked stock remuneration as long-term incentive systems. The monthly remuneration distinguishes between directors' base remuneration (paid only to directors) and executive officers' base remuneration. The latter is determined based on graded remuneration amounts which are set in accordance with the role and responsibility of the subject position. Bonus total payment amounts are determined by combining the consolidated performance category (calculated based on consolidated business results) and the personal assessment category (assessed and calculated based on the attainment of financial and non-financial targets in the position holder's area of responsibility). With 50% of the executive officers' annual base remuneration as the standard amount, remuneration can fluctuate from zero to 200% of the standard amount. Additionally, the transfer-restricted stock remuneration, contingent on the position holder's continuing in the position as director of the Company for a certain period, and the performance-linked stock remuneration, contingent on the attainment of a predetermined performance target, aim at sustainable improvements of enterprise value. Both are arrangements to award in addition to eligible corporate officers' monthly remuneration and bonus the Company's common shares as remuneration with the objective of promoting value sharing with shareholders. The standard for transfer-restricted stock remuneration is 6% of executive officers' annual base remuneration. For the performance-linked stock remuneration the standard is 19% with a fluctuation range from zero to 150% of the standard.

b. Composition of category 2 remuneration

The category 2 corporate officer remuneration consists of a monthly remuneration, with bonus payments as a short-term incentive system, and with performance-linked stock remuneration and pension plan contributions as long-term incentive system. Monthly remunerations are decided on an individual basis in accordance with the role and responsibility of the subject position. Bonus total payment amounts are determined by combining the consolidated performance category (calculated based on consolidated business results), the personal assessment category (assessed and calculated based on the attainment of financial and non-financial targets in the position holder's area of responsibility), and the fixed category. Standard amounts are determined individually. The consolidated business results category can range from zero to 220% and the individual assessment category from zero to 130% of the standard amount. Additionally, the performance-linked stock remuneration, contingent on the attainment of predetermined targets, is intended as an incentive to promote sustained enterprise value enhancement and to promote value sharing with shareholders, as an arrangement to award the Company's common shares in addition to eligible corporate officers' monthly remuneration and bonus. The standards for performance-linked stock remunerations are determined individually, with remunerations allowed to fluctuate in the range between zero and 150% of the standard. Category 2 corporate officers are not eligible to receive transfer restricted stock remunerations.

c. Composition of category 3 remuneration

The category 3 corporate officer remuneration consists only of the monthly remuneration, without payment of bonus, transfer restricted stock remuneration, and performance-linked stock remuneration.

[Short-term incentive system]

Bonuses are comprised of the consolidated performance category and the individual assessment category (composition ratios are set for each position). For consolidated performance, consolidated operating income (excluding other income and expenditure and excluding equity-method equity in investment gains and losses) has been selected as performance indicator, with the objective of strengthening the linkage with income for the subject period. Specifically, after the end of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders scheduled for June 2020, the payment amounts for the consolidated performance category will be finalized in accordance with the following method.

The specific calculation formula concerning the total payment amount of i) is as follows.

× (Total of individual points of eligible directors and executive officers ÷ 7,902) (rounded off to units of 10,000 yen)

The specific calculation formula concerning the total payment amount of i) is as follows.

Total payment amount (euro) = (Fiscal year 2019 consolidated operating income (excluding other income and expenditure and excluding equity-method equity in investment gains and losses) -70.5 billion yen) × 0.00037234%

× (Total of individual points of eligible directors and executive officers ÷ 875) (rounded off to units of 100 euro)

Category 1			Category 2
Yasuo Takeuchi	Akihiro Taguchi	Haruo Ogawa	Yasushi Sakai	Stefan Kaufmann

Out of the short-term incentive remuneration, the maximum amount of individual payments to each corporate officer pertaining to the consolidated performance results category is as follows.

Yasuo Takeuchi	77.4 million yen
Akihiro Taguchi	29.4 million yen
Haruo Ogawa	29.4 million yen
Yasushi Sakai	21.8 million yen

With a target of 89.0 billion yen, the actual result was 72.1 billion yen.

[Long-term incentive system (performance-linked stock remuneration)]

As performance indicator for a target period of three fiscal years, (1) the average rate of sales growth over the target period and (2) the combined total net income attributable to owners of the parent company ("net income") for the target period have been adopted. Depending on the degree of target attainment at the end of the target period, the Company awards the number of common shares of the Company corresponding to the subject amount adjusted in the range between 0 and 150%. Specifically, after the end of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders scheduled to be held in June 2022, the number of shares to be awarded is finalized according to the following method.

The specific calculation formula is as follows.

Total payment amount = {(Three fiscal years’ aggregate net income - 110.8 billion yen) x 0.042219567%
+ (Three fiscal years’ average sales growth rate - 2.7%) x 813,611,111 yen}
x (sum of the individual points of eligible directors and executive officers ÷ 7, 323)

Yasuo Takeuchi	Akihiro Taguchi	Haruo Ogawa	Yasushi Sakai	Stefan Kaufmann
2,903	1,575	1,57	1,170	100

Number of individually paid shares = Total number of paid shares ÷ Sum of individual points of eligible corporate officers × Individual points

However, if an eligible corporate officer is a non-resident, a corresponding cash amount will be paid instead of shares.

The upper limits for cash payments and share awards to each officer are as follows.

Yasuo Takeuchi	43.6 million yen	195,000 shares
